Many boxes of letters are received at the Poss Office not sealed, that is to say, the box it fastened with sealing wax, but there is no impression of a seal. The attention of bexholders is called to the necessity of enrefully sealing such hoxes with some recognisable seal, and of sending a chitbook or receipt with them. The omission of the latter precoution leaves a doubt as to whe-ther the contents of the box ever reached the Post Office; the omission of the former, Toto whether part of them might not have been abstracted for the sake of the Postage Stamps.
